

ASTRONOMY & AEROSPACE DAY

Saturday, April 5, 2014

1pm to 4pm

Museum of the Rockies, Bozeman

PRESENTATIONS

1pm – Opening Remarks, Angela DesJardins, Director, Montana Space Grant Consortium

1:10pm – Jaime Waydo, Google[x] systems engineer and former NASA Curiosity Rover Mobility Engineer; MSU alumnus.

2pm – Autograph session with speakers

3pm – Michelle Larson, President and CEO, Adler Planetarium; MSU alumnus

PLANETARIUM SHOW

“Flight Adventures” at 1pm and 2pm

KIDS’ ACTIVITIES

Hands-on fun throughout the afternoon!

EXHIBITORS

Activities and demonstrations from MSU and community organizations

About the image: 2.4 million light-years from Earth, the Triangulum Galaxy resides in the constellation Triangulum and spans some 50,000 light-years. Image by Ryan Hannahoe and Salvatore Grasso.

EVENT SPONSORS

Monforton School Science and Gifted Program • Montana Space Grant Consortium
MSU College of Letters & Science • MSU Extended University • Museum of the Rockies
Space Public Outreach Team • Southwest Montana Astronomical Society

